FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

In re RONALD LEE CANADA,

Nos. C 11-4888 SBA (PR)
C 11-4999 SBA (PR)
C 11-5161 SBA (PR)

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

These actions were opened when the Court received from Plaintiff Ronald Lee Canada letters to the "Coleman<sup>1</sup> Special Master's Team" and to Senior District Court Judge Lawrence K. Karlton of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California expressing displeasure with the mental health care in the prison at which he is currently housed, California State Prison-Sacramento. In each action, the Clerk of the Court opened a case file, and sent out a notice that Plaintiff had not filed a complaint, and cautioned that the action would be dismissed if he did not submit a complaint within thirty days. The Clerk also sent out a notice that each action was deficient due to the failure to pay the filing fee or furnish a completed and signed Court-approved in forma pauperis application, and cautioned that the action would be dismissed if he did not pay the fee or file the application materials within thirty days. In Case Nos. C 11-4888 SBA (PR) and C 11-4999 SBA (PR), Plaintiff sent similar letters stating that he did not intend to commence a new action but only to inform the judge and the "Coleman Special Master's Team" of his mental health care concerns. (Docket no. 4 in C 11-4888 SBA (PR); Docket no. 5 in C 11-4999 SBA (PR).) The letters appear to apply to all actions, as Plaintiff filed nothing further in Case No. C 11-5161 SBA (PR).

In light of Plaintiff's explanation that the letters he sent to Judge Karlton and/or the "Coleman Special Master's Team" were not intended to commence a new action, these actions are DISMISSED because they were opened in error. No filing fees are due. The Clerk shall close the files.
